Unapologetically raw, vulnerable, and crass, Frida R. left no stone unturned in her debut poetry collection, Blossom's Wine Bar, originally published in 2017. Frida's abundantly descriptive writing style will grab you by your heart, dragging you down the unpaved streets of her messy, ever-changing alcohol-soaked world.

At 27 years old, Frida had lived many lives and opened up about abortion, unstable relationships, an absentee father, depression, and much more in this short chapbook.

You will be forever changed and left begging for more.
