A THERMONUCLEAR BOMB?

Harding Breslow anticipates helping his ex find her wayward grandparents to be a pleasant hike through Utah's Canyon Country. What he gets is a nightmare. Dirty cops. Dirty ex-military. And a potentially dirty nuke intended to eradicate Phoenix.

As if that's not enough to deal with, Harding finds himself falling harder than ever for the gorgeous blonde who makes it clear she will never love him again. Does he have a chance of wooing her back? Will their love matter if he fails to save her and her grandparents from radical extremists who want all of them--and every other living thing in Arizona--dead?

SEAL Team: Disavowed

To become a United States Navy SEAL, a man must be physically forged in steel and able to mentally compute life or death situations with laser accuracy and speed. Our country trusts these men with the most sensitive military operations—many so covert that once they are successfully completed, they are never spoken of again.

This series celebrates one particularly fierce band of brothers who valiantly battled terrorists whose crimes against nature and humanity were far too great to chance escape. On a dark night, on foreign soil, SEAL Team Alpha witnessed acts so unspeakably cruel against women, infants and small children that their consciences would not allow anything other than their own brand of justice for the scum terrorist cell.

A trial would have been too good for these pigs, and so, one-by-one they were taken out, and the women and children they'd used were freed. By dawn, an entire region breathed easier. The men of Alpha found themselves heroes to those whose lives they had saved, but virtual criminals in the eyes of the organization they served. After a lengthy investigation, their elite, covert team was formally disbanded.

They now spend their lives deep undercover, still serving—no longer their country, but individuals who find themselves in need of not only their own personal warrior, but a particular brand of justice.

While honorably discharged, these men and their actions will forever be disavowed . . .
