All children should be safe from harm . . .Someone didn't get the message.

Life has not calmed down for Delaney McPhearson now that she has become the ring bearer. For the last few months, she, Henry Chandler, and Jake Rogan have been finding the camps of the teenage potentials left behind by Amar.

In their search, they've come across something they didn't expect: More children are missing but these children are younger - much younger.

One of the largest lines of investigation leads them to early American history and the legends of an ancient race of giants. But are they getting closer to the missing children or heading down a path that will only lead them farther away?

Together, Laney, Jake, and Henry have faced incredible odds together and won. But this time the cost feels that much steeper. Because this time it's not just their lives at risk - this time it's children who may pay the ultimate price.

If you like James Rollins, Clive Cussler, Dan Brown, Douglas Preston and Lincoln Child, then you will be pulled right into this non-stop action thriller.

What Readers are Saying: "Brady continues the Belial Series with exceptional craftsmanship. But it is not up to me to tell the story here. You want to know if this series is worth purchasing. And I am telling you, without hesitation, that YES you need to read these books."

"I am certainly hooked! I love every one of these books!"

"R.D. continues to beat the snot out of the bad guys, and her characters continue to be tough and loving at the same time. Each book introduces a new hero that gives the plot a new twist. The author continues to give great stories by doing super research into the subject matter."

"Don't miss this series if you like a little mystical twist to human history, interwoven with historical fact. Waiting for book 6... And far from bored!"

"When I start one of these books, it is almost impossible to put down until I finish."

"I absolutely love this series! I no sooner finished one book when I couldn't wait to start the next one."
