Eighteen-year-old Will is a jewel thief with only one goal in life — to be rich. That's why when he spots Aidan, the second prince of Ambrosia saving a peasant girl from royal guards, he steals the prince's ruby bracelet. Unfortunately, Will stumbles into Aidan again during a robbery, and the two strike a bargain.

In a world where same-sex relationships are forbidden in the royal family, Prince Aidan is attracted to men. To make matters worse, his uncle is in possession of love letters that Aidan exchanged with his old lover. In a desperate attempt to retrieve the incriminating letters, Aidan hires Will and offers him a chance to save his neck.

Navigating a world full of thievery, magic, and jewels, Aidan and Will stumble upon secrets that could change their lives. As the unlikely partnership blossoms into something more, political tensions escalate. Will's loyalty lies with the rebels who want to overthrow the king, and Aidan is honor-bound to protect his family. Will they end up together or be torn apart by the hands of fate?
