A secret project is about to be reactivated...

In the middle of the Pacific Ocean in 1962, at the height of the cold war, the U.S. military experimented with electromagnetic pulses created by detonating high atmosphere nuclear bombs. The project was code named Starfish Prime.

The primary objective was to develop the ability to produce an EMP with enough force to knock out an entire nation's communication systems.

The secondary objective, along with its consequences, was deemed too important to national security to ever be released.

In the present day, in the Weddell Sea off the coast of Antarctica, a woman wakes up on a cruise ship to discover she's the only person left aboard, despite no apparent fault with the ship. . .

. . . and Sam Reilly may be the only person standing in the way of The Cassidy Project.
